

Stephanie Quesnelle (Jaczkowski)

EXPERIENCE

Data Driven Detroit

November 2016-Present

Research Analyst

- Manage complex datasets, including acquisition, management, and analysis, utilizing GIS, Excel, and Microsoft Access
- Assist in the design and implementation of data collection, such as surveys, required for research projects
- Conduct in-depth analysis on datasets to add additional insights to project outcomes

Global Team Blue (Team Detroit)

June 2015-November 2016

Analyst (serving Ford Global and Ford Credit)

- Create and maintain SPSS syntax and Excel macros to increase efficiency
- Implement research plans through programming surveys, analyzing data, and producing high-quality deliverables
- Communicate data, results, and recommendations to clients in quarterly dashboards and ad hoc analyses
- Develop and implement research plans for new benchmarking surveys on 9 websites for Ford Global and Ford Credit
- Improve reporting through innovative data display, topic selection, and collaboration across global teams

Korea University/Indiana University School of Public and Environmental Affairs

January 2014-Present

Research Assistant for Dr. Haeil Jung

- Analyze data via Stata and SAS for initial research related to incarceration and labor market outcomes
- Compile literature reviews on social policy issues like recidivism, maternal employment, and foster care
- Edit completed papers before submission for publication on various social policy issues

Department of Economics at Indiana University

August 2013-May 2015

Office Assistant

- Managed conference and workshop publicity through website updates, flyers, and emails
- Assisted with a major overhaul of the department's and CAPER's site design and organization

Defense Finance and Accounting Services

May 2014-August 2014

Student Trainee, Disbursing Operations

- Analyzed call center data to compile 16 website changes to improve customer service efficiency
- Improved specificity and speed of misrouted call tracking system with additional analysis of call center data
- Established standardized contact information for 25 military base commands
- Analyzed and revised 15 standard operating procedures for errors, clarity, and content

American-Polish Fulbright Commission

October 2012-June 2013

Fulbright Scholar: English Teaching Assistant

- Developed curriculum and lesson plans for 70 students in first and second year phonetics classes
- Provided insight into American elections, politics, and culture through outreach programs with local American Corner

Department of Political Science at Central Michigan

August 2011-May 2012

Research Assistant

- Analyzed research data in Excel and Stata on multiple papers
- Managed and created datasets from multiple sources, including federal and state, for analysis
- Contributed to paper focused on unemployment insurance and childhood development

EDUCATION

Indiana University-Bloomington

2015

Master of Public Affairs Concentrations: Public Finance and Policy Analysis

Central Michigan University, Honors: Magna Cum Laude and Honors Program

2012

Major: Political Science and Integrative Public Relations Minor: Legal Studies

Warsaw School of Economics: Warsaw, Poland,

Spring 2010

Studied business and international politics

AWARDS AND ACHIEVEMENTS

"Public Attitudes Towards Marijuana Legalization: Self-Interest Versus Symbolic Predispositions"

Paper Presentation at the 2010 Southern Political Science Association Conference

"Unemployment Insurance Effect on Crime Rate: An Analysis of State-Level Data"

2012 College of Humanities and Social and Behavior Science Undergraduate Paper Award

Paper Presentation at the 2013 European Political Science Association Conference

SOFTWARE PACKAGES

Proficient: Adobe InDesign, SPSS, SAS, Stata, Excel, PowerPoint

Beginner: R, SQL, HTML, Access, Adobe Photoshop, Publisher, VBA, GIS